MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello everyone,

I hope you all had a wonderful Easter. It hardly seems possible that we are in April already!

We have been busy here at Garrick. Our first season is tucked away, and rehearsals are well underway for Season Two. Miles Franklin's My Brilliant Career, adapted by Christine Davey and showcasing some TAG members, is being directed by Jane Sherwood. Jane is bringing her usual flair and innovation to this Australian classic.

Bookings are open now. Be sure to book early to avoid disappointment.

Garrick has had a kitchen facelift! To celebrate our revamped kitchen (many thanks to Yvonne for her tireless efforts to ensure all went smoothly for the contractors), we are hosting a Pie and Pint night at the theatre on Friday 26th May. $10.00 will buy you a pie, a beer or wine and the chance to inspect our new and vastly improved kitchen. For those with dietary issues such as GF and vegan, please notify us when you book. Please come along to our long overdue social night...any excuse for a chance to have a good catch up. Full details are included in this edition of the newsletter and on our website.

Which brings me to our next piece of news. Garrick has a new website. You can now find us at www.garricktheatre.com.au. Pop over and check out our new look. Don't forget to check in regularly for all the news and upcoming events.

The rest of the year is looking very good, with Barry Park bringing us The York Realist in Season Three, Fred Petersen making a welcome return to directing with Man and Boy in Season Four and Susan Vincent rounding the year out with The Boyfriend. We will have more news of each of these productions in due course.

Have a fantastic month everyone. I look forward to catching up with you all soon.

Cheers,

Roxi

HUMPHRIES.

Congratulations one and all. Chookas for your season. Looking forward to seeing it.

Anticipating a season of successful productions, Garrick members live it up at the traditional opening party in the New Year.

Back in 1992 Garrick celebrated its Diamond Jubilee by compiling and publishing a commemorative calendar.

The Déjà Vu 1992 Calendar was from an idea by Chris Holden. and all the characters portrayed were Garrick Members. Each photo depicts members at various thespian pursuits.

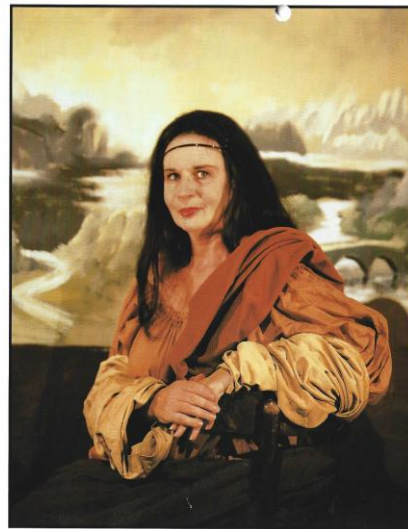

Can you identify the déjà vu paintings? Do you recognise the members?

These first three images are January, February and March.

January – Anticipating a season of successful productions, Garrick members live it up at the traditional opening party in the New Year.

February - Barbara in her part as Lady MacBeth, keeps her eye on the Director during dress rehearsal.

March – The cast for the next production take advantage of the hot weather to study their lines by the river.

APRIL – Norma moves a contentious motion which results in a lively discussion at the monthly Garrick Committee Meeting.

(Editor's note - Nothing has changed)

No prizes for guessing the déjà vu painting.
